

Daniel Carroll to Thomas Jefferson, October 13, 1792, from Thomas Jefferson and the National Capital. Edited by Saul K. Padover.

Daniel Carroll to Jefferson

George Town Octr. 13th. 1792

Dear Sir,

It may be some satisfaction to you to know that the letter you dropd from Mr Madison came to hand the next day by post. I conclude from thence that you have likewise got the packet.

We have been in anxious expectation of receiving some of the Pha. plans of the City of Washington with the Soundings on them.

The Sales average abt. £80 p Lott some were sold by Squares. The average of those sold by Single Lotts abt £91. P Lott. The sales not considerable. We have a good prospect of doing well in the private Sales. Several of the late purchasers will become improvers & settlers immidiately.

I am, Dear Sir, with great esteem & respect

Yr most Obt Servt. Danl. Carroll

[Ms., Jefferson Papers, Library of Congress.]